Spooky2 Testimonial 🧙

When I Tried Plant Peptides on My Sweet Potatoes

This patch of sweet potatoes comes back yearly, but this year it hasn't been so robust. The holes were getting worse daily, so I decided to run the "Plant Acute and Chronic Pests" peptides on the vine, using a piece of leaf placed in the remote.

After running the frequencies for 2-3 days, no further damage was seen, and the plant grew 3 ft longer within 2 weeks.

The sweet potato hornworms are very voracious, so I was absolutely surprised that they just stopped feeding.

I cannot wait to try this again along with other plant frequencies in my fall garden!

Spooky2 Q&A

How can I find DH Experimental presets after downloading?

These are self-executing (.exe) installation files now. After downloading, you have to install them—just like the Spooky software and peptide presets, etc. Click here to learn more.

What's the difference between running multiple programs in a shell and saving multiple programs as a custom program?

Every program needs to run with an empty shell, custom or not. Presets have their shell built in. If using programs, you need to pick the empty shell to use. The empty shell sets up all the settings on the settings tab. And it's presets you chain—not programs. Click here to learn more.

I am trying to take a sample with the digitizer using the SD Database setting. How long should it take?

The estimated duration of that biofeedback preset is 22:34:25. So you only had 14 hours to wait until the scan was finished.

The SD Database is when you want to find the frequencies of a substance, say like an essential oil, for saving into a substance database. Click here for more discussion.
